

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Angelo Marino, 6, testified against alleged kidnapers. Boy failed to identify defendants.

Judge Gemmill not alarmed at divorce increase. Claims it is good sign. 21 per cent caused by cruelty.

Myrtle Priffler, 11, 6615 Vernon av., missing. Kidnaping feared.

Emil Naegel held as bigamy suspect.

Frank Rushall and Joseph Lowski married sisters. Each thought own wife best. Quarreled. Lowski fined $5 for using beer bottle.

Mrs. Maggie Murphy and Mrs. Mary Rice, negroes, 3241 S. LaSalle st., held to grand jury in connection with death of William Henderson, negro. Man shot quarreling with women.

Evelyn Collinet, 3, made ward of court. Will stay with grandmother. Both parents permitted to see child.

More police assigned to Kensington district. Only one policeman to square mile at present.

Horse and wagon belonging to B. Raskow, 1939 W. Chicago av., stolen. $100 worth of food stuff also taken.

Mayor may dismiss members of board of supervising engineers for allowing street car lines to shift accounts. Auditing report shows companies cheated city.

Jesse Mayhew, 30, negro, charged with taking $300 watch from home of Frank N. Gage, 4028 Ellis av.

John E. Northrup, special state's attorney in vote fraud trial, cross-examined self before Judge Foell. Motion for acquittal denied.

Mrs. Catherine Wise, 326 W. Chestnut st., bound, gagged and mistreated by five men. Found unconscious.

German band stopped before Moran's saloon, 75 E. Randolph st. Invited in. Forced to play Irish airs for hours. Rescued by police.

Mrs. A. Meissberg, 40, 2243 Potomac av., plunged from third story window with baby boy in arms. Landed on flower bed. Unhurt.

Woman chucking man under chin immoral ruling of movie censorship board.

Mrs. Mary Rivini, 30, 2137 Federal st., stopped by armed negro. Gave him nickel. Robber satisfied.

Jewels valued at $3,200 were stolen from Mrs. Margaret Canfield Snow, Ossing, N. Y., at LaSalle street station. Pawned for $22 with Clark st. broker. Recovered.

William Keith, slayer of Walter Paul, tells of killing. Claims crosses on wife's confession indicated single men.

Near panic at Criterion Theater, Sedgwick and Division sts., when 4 men attacked usher. William Kollman, 1319 Sedgwick st., stabbed in leg.

Gustav Schwatzer and Thomas Sience, San Francisco, arrested. Were breaking into Fred Lobenhoser's home, 1351 Eddy st.

Contempt proceedings against Lt. Gov. Barrett O'Hara dismissed at request of C. A. Samuel, holder of judgment against him.

Lena Ruok, 1718 W. 15th st., lost sweetheart. Swallowed bichloride of mercury. Will recover.

Victor Tabolla, 7350 University av., tired of warmed-over coffee and three-day-old oatmeal, slapped wife. Arrested. Fined $50. Judge reconsidered fine and told hubby to leave wife.

Mrs. Ella McConnell, 4408 Sheridan road, met Dr. William C. Hardy. Man fled with $1,500. Offers $100 reward for deceiver's arrest.

Larceny charge against Fred Beisswanger, former justice of peace, dismissed.

James B. Dibelka, reinstated school trustee, seated after four months' enforced absence. Ousted members to abolish site committee.

Mrs. Jessie Braman Daggett will speak at the May festival of Woman's Trade Union League at Schiller Hall, 64 W. Randolph st., Sunday, May 10.